Himalaya

Jeanette

Sadness
I feel my heart's not open
Last night my wings were broken
But love will come my wayFreedom
I swim right through the ocean
A really good emotion
I'll keep my dream aliveSo I go to Himalaya, a thousand voices from the sky
And I feel a ray of hope deep in my heart
And my dream of Himalaya will come true 'cause I believe
In a world of peace and everlasting loveHeaven
It takes me high and higher
I hear the angels choir
The pain of love has goneCalmness
I'll find in my religion
This is my only vision
To leave the world behindSo I go to Himalaya, a thousand voices from the sky
And I feel a ray of hope deep in my heart
And my dream of Himalaya will come true 'cause I believe
In a world of peace and everlasting loveSo I go to Himalaya, a thousand voices from the sky
And I feel a ray of hope deep in my heart
And my dream of Himalaya will come true 'cause I believe
In a world of peace and everlasting loveAnd I feel a ray of hope deep in my heart
And my dream of Himalaya will come true 'cause I believe
In a world of peace and everlasting love
