

So Far Away

Nick Carter

So far, so far, so far away
So far, so far, so far away
She's the girl I see
When I'm in my dreams
I'm seeing the lady
And I'm going crazy
She's the one for me
And the one that I can't reach
And I never knew that
Someone could be so perfect
And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it, yeah
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
When she walks away
Does she feel my pain?
My heart is aching
It's like I'm breaking, yeah
She's the one I want
And even when she's gone
I'm overtaken

There's no escaping, yeah
And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it, yeah
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
It's a tragedy when she's here with me
'Cause I know she'll never see it
And my heart just keeps on bleeding
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

So far, so far, so far away
And I want her love so bad
I can almost taste it
And I need her touch so much
I can almost feel it, yeah
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
She's so far away
And I want her love so bad
