Waste Time

The Fire Theft

Don't wanna waste time, is it a matter of mind?
Don't wanna lose control, I've gotta say, "Goodbye, my love"We just couldn't get it right, it was a matter of time, oh
All I wanted was to stay there in your arms
But when the door opened I had to say, "Goodbye, goodbye"And I knew that it was not our fate
But I waited all those years to hear you say
"I always loved you, only you, only you"
But I knew that it was just too late, my Juliet noThough I still have dreams of you and I together again
I can't afford to lie, I have to say, "Goodbye, goodbye"
We didn't know the future but we did what was right
