

Love Me Like That (with Sheryl Crow)

Michelle Branch

Well you sold my heart
And I'll get it back
But look me in the eye, baby
Tell me why you love me like that
Why you love me like that Well I've walked this world
Thought time's no more
And after all this walking
They've still got me crawling on the floor
Crawling on the floor And out of this world
Keeps on turning
Keeps me yearning How can you turn and walk away?
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back?
Tell me why you love me like that
Why you love me like that Well I find you sad
But I shatter like broken glass
But I thought we would be different, baby
Yeah, I thought we would last
Yeah, I thought we would last And out of this world
Keeps on standing
Every minute that you're in me How can you turn and walk away
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back
Tell me why you love me like that
Why you love me like that I might not believe me baby
Don't lead me on
With loving like yours
Believe me I'm better off,
I'm better off alone Well I was your gypsy
Throwing diamonds at your feet
Drifted around you like a satellite
I gave you everything you need
Everything you need I know this world keeps on turning
Keeps me yearning and yearning How can you turn and walk away
Pretending everything's okay
How can you turn your back
Tell me why you love me like that
Why you
How can you just break away

Why can't you find the words to say
Love is something you can't forget
Tell me why you love me like that
Why you love me like that How can you throw us away
Look at what you lost today
Now everything's a shade of gray
Now you're pushing me away
Say all the things you need to say
Thought we were going all the way
Play all the games you want to play
Sooner we'll stay away
