Smooth Sailing

Pete Rock

It's all in motion, Ain't no stopping it now
I got nothing to lose & only one way, up
I'm burning bridges, I destroy the mirage
All visions of collisions
Fuckin' Bon VoyageIt's all Smooth Sailing from here on outI got: Bruises & hickeys, stitches & scars
Got my own theme music plays wherever I are Fear is the hand that pulls your strings
You're a useless toy, pitiful plaything
I'm in flagrante, in every way, every dayIt's all smooth sailing from here on out
I'm gonna do the damage till the damage is doneGod only knows one long vacation
If reason is priceless, there's no reason to pay
For it
It's so easy to see, yet so hard to find
Make a Mountain of a Molehill, if the Molehill is MineI Hypnotize you, ignore, then defy you
I Blow my Load over the Status Quo...Oh... Here we go
I'm a little bit nonchalant when I dance
I Risk it always, no second chance, that's why
It's gotta beIt's all Smooth Sailing from here on out
I'm gonna do the damage til the damage is doneGod only knows, so mind your behavior
Follow prescriptions of your loaded Saviour
Every temple is gold, like every hook needs to ShineHeadaches at the temple of the closed mind
It's all Smooth Sailing from here on out.
