

You've Changed

Joy Zipper

Sometimes I notice you're not the same
Nothing has changed, you're not the same
I had a feeling that this might happen without a warning
You've changed
You've changed, changed
You're not the same
Angels are crowded over my shoulder, the devil's behind them
And now I realize you run the game
Nothing has changed, you run the game
You've changed, changed, changed
You're not the same
You've changed, changed, changed
You run the game
I wish you would always be the same
I wish you would always be the same
I wish you would always be the same
I wish you would always be the same
Aaayaayaay
