

Who Am I?

Twiztid

what would it take for you to believe in me?
and what would it be like if you were living all your dreams?
and why would you care if i told you to live when others want you to die?who am i... to tell you something that you already know?
who am i... to tell you hold on when you wanna let go?
who am i... im just a sicko with a song in my head and it keeps playing again and again and again and againhow would it sound if i told you to leave me?
and how would it feel if i gave it all up to be free?
the pain just dont like to be in a situation where you listen to mewho am i... to tell you something that you already know?
who am i... im just a sicko with a song in my head and it keeps playing again and again and again and againman im so high i forget the words to my favorite song ive been smoking so long what are you waiting for?
just sing along
why are you looking at me?
i just like it singing my favorite song what you want it to be?
dont make me break you off sing alongwhat would it be like if we were all you need?
a chance to change a life while taking away from your reality and why would you care to try when youve become so comfortable with your life?who am i... to tell you something that you already know?
who am i... to tell you hold on when you wanna let go?
who am i... im just a sicko with a song in my head
and it keeps playing again and again and again and again
