

AIRPORT BAR

Martin Courtney

Its half past two in the afternoon and I wish I could see your faces Wondering where you are from an airport bar
Is a useless exercise but what's time wasted
When just being here
Is to recycle a single day
I can pass the time but I can't undo the changes once they're made Please don't go forgetting about me
Don't go forgetting about me
I got into deep when I was asleep
I thought I had it made Life in that dream was just what it seemed If I knew then what I know now I would not have stayed Please don't go forgetting about me
don't go forgetting about me
don't go forgetting about me
don't go forgetting about me
