Sherri

Billy Idol

Come home, it's a brand new day
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Come on, there's a devil to pay
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Sherri's on the run
'Cause no one seems to listen
There's something deep inside
Heartfelt that she's missing
They are not in your shoes
They are not you, poor fools
You know it's a world of confusion
All usin' and self-abusin', so
Come home, it's a brand new day
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Come on, there's a devil to pay
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
When I'm out having fun
The whole world seems to glisten
She said, "There's a fire going on
The choppers ain't detecting"
She said, "We have such simple views
So I must see inside of you"
Now that my world is changing
C'mon back, I should be celebrating, so
Come home, it's a brand new day
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Come on, there's a devil to pay
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Duckin' in and out
Hiding from authority
Sittin' in a wayside home
I said, "Come back to me"
Duckin' in and out
Hiding from authority
Sittin' in a wayside home
I said, "Come back to me"
Come home, it's a brand new day
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Come on, there's a devil to pay

Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
This is a day in a life as it happens
Play by play, minute by minute
This is the way of life as it happens
Day by day, hour by hour
Come home, it's a brand new day
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Come on, there's a devil to pay
Come home, my Sherri, Sherri runaway
Sherri runaway
Sherri runaway
Sherri run a'
Come home, there's a brand new, brand new day
