

Mistaken (feat. Steve Davit)

Marian Hill

I've been tryna wipe you outta my mind,
Begging you to call me some other time,
Lookin' in the rear view,
Hoping that I leave you, behind, Thinking bout the things that I know I shouldn't do,
Thinking bout how I don't ever need you,
Thinking bout you daily,
Thinkin' maybe you should, come through, I been trying to shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,
I been tryna shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,
Thought I could deny this craving,
Call me crazy,
Now I'm cravin',
Thought that I could break it but I think you know,
There ain't no mistaken, There ain't no mistaken, I been tryna get you outta my head,
Now with all the extra space in my bed,
Falling into day dreams,
Now I think I've found what, you said, Boy you got the high life,
Double time swing,
Living like a lowkey summertime drink,
Don't know how to fight it,
Tell me baby,
What do, you think? I been trying to shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,
I been tryna shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,
Thought I could deny this craving,
Call me crazy,
Now I'm cravin',
Thought that I could break it but I think you know,
There ain't no mistaken, There ain't no mistaken, Try so hard, to get free,
Breaking with the current boy,
Up my guard, couldn't see,
We were right in front of me,
I can't sleep, can't you see,
baby what you do to me,
tried so hard, now I see,
there aint no --I been trying to shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,

I been trying shake it,
But I know there ain't no mistaken,
Thought I could deny this craving,
Call me crazy,
Now I'm cravin',
Thought that I could break it but I think you know,
There ain't no mistaken, There ain't no mistaken
