

Beauty And A Thug

Jaheim

So burgundy, the window to his soul
It seems he tapes his eyes closed
From huffin' on, that's what he's puffin' on
His style is rough, he wears his hair in cornrolls
His jeans hang loose and low
So his [Incomprehensible] he can be comfortable
I mean, he's gotta be comfortable
Now, she's the type that's compared to a rose
That grew from the concrete
Sweet ya know, from the streets yo
Now, she's the opposite of he
Have you ever seen a lion sleep on the bosom of a sheep?
It's beautiful, yeah, thug though
She's so beautiful and he's a thug
They're so different yet they're in love
He's so thugged out and she's so beautiful
They're so perfect 'cause they're in love
Picture this, his warm, velvet voice
On a cold winters night
Sugar free, bitter truth
Building life from a slang, so divine
Soul to soul, their flesh pressed
From a firm grip of onyx tenderness
He signed his name with a venom kiss
Upon a heart, I never heard of such bliss
Now, she's the opposite of he
Such as a butterfly and he's a killer bee
Yeah, she becomes a victim to his sting

And he's amazed by the colors of her wings
And the life he's led has left him with some scars
But, she viewed them all as mere beauty marks
The moral of the story, plain as can be
He loved her 'cause he is me
She's so beautiful and he's a thug
They're so different yet they're in love
He's so thugged out and she's so beautiful
They're so perfect 'cause they're in love
She's so beautiful and he's a thug

They're so different yet they're in love
He's so thugged out and she's so beautiful
They're so perfect 'cause they're in love
Da da, da da da, da da, da da da
She's beautiful and he's a thug
Made for each other 'cause they're in love
She's a petal and he's a thorn
From a different type of story since they were born
She's so beautiful and he's a thug
They're so different yet they're in love
He's so thugged out and she's so beautiful
They're so perfect 'cause they're in love
She's so beautiful and he's a thug
They're so different yet they're in love
He's so thugged out and she's so beautiful
They're so perfect 'cause they're in love
