

A Bit on the Side

The Veils

Hoochie-coo-mon-ami-oh-my
Honey, honey
Honey, honey
Go on get your little bit on the side
Honey, honeyHoney, honey
She'll only love you 'til the money runs dry
Honey, honey
Honey, honey
So go on get your little bit on the sideHoney, honey
Honey, honey
You've made your bed now lie in it
You know that I'd agreeThis feeling it ain't right
I can't deny it
But what use is there to fight?
And if you've still got love for me
