

Bite the Hand That Bleeds

Fear Factory

I watch you tap the blood in my vein
My heart you feed on to keep you sustained
A parasite that leaves me cold and drained I'm in shock and you leave me paralyzed
And the saddest part I realize
The absence of truth behind your eyes I feel you tapping my soul from my vein
I feel you tapping again on my vein
I feel my life slipping away One more drop of blood I spill
One more drop you take
One more drop and I will spite
And bite the hand that bleeds I see you have two faces turning
Change your face to keep me guessing
You have mastered the art of deceiving
(Deceiving, deceiving, deceiving) Now, I know, no one trusts you
Now, I know, not even you do
And I think your salt in my wounds Now, I know, no one trusts you
Now, I know, no one trusts you
Now, I know, your salt in my wounds One more drop of blood I spill
One more drop you take
One more drop and I will spite
And bite the hand that bleeds Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you One more drop of blood I spill
One more drop you take
One more drop and I will spite
And bite the hand that bleeds Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you
Bite the hand that bleeds you
You, you
