

Heart of Stone

Iko

Can you keep a secret
Will you hold your hand
Among the flames
Honey you're a shipwreck
With your heart of stone Can I get a witness
To the bruises and
The wasted tears
If it dried a river
With your heart of stone
With your heart of stone I can breath
I can breath, water, water
I can breath
I can breath, water, water
When you're here with me
You're not here with me Can I pry your fingers
From everything I say and do
And I just can't forget you
And your heart of stone I can breath
I can breath, water, water
I can breath
I can breath, water, water
I can breath
I can breath, water, water
I can breath
I can breath, water When you're here with me
You're not here with me
