

You Cut So Deep

Dudek Finnigan Krueger Band

There's no hurting here
We see things as clear
Someone sang it wrong
Don't listen to that song
There's murder, there's murder
Goin' on downtown
And the hills are burning, hills are burning
Down to the ground

There's no hurting here
C'mon feel free
Take a slice of me

Oh you cut so deep
But painlessly
You cut so deep
But painlessly

People close their eyes
Listen to their lies
No one says a word
I think that I heard
There's fever, there's fever
Trapped in their souls
And the winds are chillin', winds are chillin'
Hearts to the bone
