Blue Raft

Common Children

Hello, come in, rub your face in the wind
Can you feel it?
It's all right to drift where the water is swift
Don't you feel it?Are you ready to ride
It's a question of pride and devotion
Come on, let's float down the slippery slope
Towards the oceanFloating, you and me, careening to the sea
The water is deep, yeah, the river is wide
In my room, on my raft where I rideGo on, get out any shadow of doubt
You can believe it
The resurrection is real, living waters will heal
Come on, receive itFloating, you and me, careening to the sea
The water is deep, yeah, the river is wide
In my room
(In my room)
On my raft
(On my raft)
Where I rideDarkness will fade, let your tears sink away
Just like stones
Wake up your mind when the morning light shines
Into your soulSee the birds fly in, hear the songs float out
Through my window
On a river of love the Spirit is hovering
On the windFloating, you and me, careening to the sea
The water is deep, yeah, the river is wide
In my room
(In my room)
On my raft
(On my raft)
Where I rideRide, blue velvet raft
Ride
