Timebomb

Tove Lo

You made your way in as I was leaving
You cut in line just as I was getting my stuff
And I couldn't decide if you were the most annoying human being I'd ever met
Or just the best thing that ever happened
Just the best thing that ever happenedYou took the key out of the ignition
I could hear the rain on the windows
Right then and there I made up my mind to just go with it
Thinking what's the worst thing that could happen?
When the worst thing that could happen, could be the best thing everWe're not forever
You're not the one
We're not forever
You're not the one
We're not forever
You're not the oneYou and I could be the best thing ever
We're not happy ever after
We don't got what it takes
And we don't make plans
Cause we're never gonna lastWe're not forever
You're not the one
You and I, we're a time
Bomb bomb bomb bomb
We're not forever
You're not the one
You and I, we're a timebombI shut the door and never looked back
When something this good comes along you're better off letting the first time be the last time
But really, what's the worst thing that could happen
When the worst thing that could happen, could be the best thing everWe're not forever
You're not the one
We're not forever
You're not the one
We're not forever
You're not the oneYou and I could be the best thing ever
We're not happy ever after
We don't got what it takes
And we don't make plans
Cause we're never gonna lastWe're not forever
You're not the one
You and I, we're a time

We're not forever
You're not the one
You and I, we're a timebombOoh, we could be the best thing everOh we, could be (we could be the best thing ever)
The best, thing, ever (we could be the best thing ever)Ooh, forever (we could be the best thing ever)
Oh we, could be, the best
We're a time bomb
We're not forever
You're not the one
You and I, we're a timebomb
