Theseus

Broadening the Daylight

Speak to me!
I don't understand the voices around me!
Why can't I comprehend this confusion this confusion is killing me!

I've lost faith in what life means Time has faded. Is this a dream?
Someone wake me from this sleep
Life flows in a pointless stream

Hatred and demons is all that surrounds me and so is the darkness that consumes my being As if my soul is descending to a place so very

I'm falling into a hell so deep, (it shakes me, it wakes me),
I'll never sleep
But the darkness pulls me down, just take a seat.
