

You Don't Anymore

Toby Keith

We stood at the altar, repeating our vows for life
For better or worse, forever a husband and wife
Love's not always easy and dreams don't all come true
Why'd you lose your faith in me, I never gave up on you
When I said, I do, I did
And the words were truly spoken
I gave you my heart to hold
Thinking it would go unbroken
You've drifted so far you can't see the stars
We wished upon before
When I said, I do, I did, but you don't anymore
These days nobody seems to try
To love through the hard times instead of just saying good-bye
We built this world around us, together hand in hand
If you decide to walk away it won't change where I stand
When I said, I do, I did
And the words were truly spoken
I gave you my heart to hold
Thinking it would go unbroken
You've drifted so far you can't see the stars
We wished upon before
When I said, I do, I did, but you don't anymore
