Thorn Sharp

Criteria

brace yourself my dear there's a new one why you ended so tragically you won't believe how simple a problem can be solved so complicatedly and i agree you should have known sooner it's my fault for not believing the truth comes with divined intervention and i need you to interveneembrace our time (cause it will never last)
a cold red line (we become)
a thorn sharp line
into my side
into my sidedid i mention my soul could carry no weight i'm ready for you, to be here to today this life is not made to be seperate you're breaking my heart so come back todayno i can't write no i can't explain what i want to say is that i can't really help you anywaysso leave me here with a basement lifeembrace our time
(we become)
a thorn sharp line
into my side
