Victim

MOTHXR

I think that maybe if I can't explain
The in between
This and that, or the dimension after
Maybe on another plane
We never really metDo you ever wander
Feelings ever fonder
Stuck inside a verb that's never resting
Boarding on another plane
I touched her in the terminal
Can't wait any longer
Flying on your milesVictim
Victim
I'm a victim of
VictimIt seems that lately I've been slipping
A little more
In the shower holding on my razor
Careful where I'm stepping
Don't want the blood the letThis won't last forever
See I'm much to clever
To stay inside my lane when it's spiralingMaybe it's a matter
You know I just can't feel no more
I'm a victim of
Victim
