Maybe

Marlango

Maybe I'm tired because
I take too long to think
How I'm gonna take the first stepMaybe, I'm so exhausted
Thinking it's just not worth
Trying to go out the door and doing my best
My best to grab your armsSwing you around and make you mine
For once my love I'll take the beginning
With no end in mind, for once, my love
I'll take the beginning with no end in mindMaybe, I wait outside the door
Maybe, you stand behind the window
Trying to hide
Maybe, your eyes are full of liesMaybe, my mouth is fast with lines
That I wish didn't work
But I'll try my best and I guessI'll swing you around and make you mine
For once my love I'll take the beginning
With no end in mind, for once, my love
I'll take the beginning with no end in mindMaybe I'm scared because I think I'm too slow to bring out
All the sparks that burn inside
Maybe I'm small becauseI think I'm too weak to take up
All the space that I request
But I'll try my best
And I guessI'll swing you around and make you mine
For once my love I'll take the beginning
With no end in mind, for once, my love
I'll take the beginning with no end in mind
