

Cigarette Eyes

Matt Costa

I've heard the story
I'm sure he held you down
Forced you to do things
While I'm not around
But you lied, and you lied
But I've got cigarette eyes
I feel uneasy, I think of you less
My mind is so restless
And I'm feeling depressed
Oh my, oh my to see you with that spy
You lie but I know 'cause
I've got cigarette eyes
Out in the country I'm sure no one could tell
You held a victim under your spell
So go hide, well, go hide
But I've got cigarette eyes
I feel uneasy, I think of you less
My mind is so restless
And I'm feeling depressed
Oh my, oh my, to see you with that spy
You lied but I know 'cause
I've got cigarette eyes
Cigarette eyes

I've got cigarette eyes
Cigarette eyes
So you've got yourself a bright young girl
One who lies with you in bed
When she tells you that she likes the weather
Don't believe a word she says, no
Out in the country I'm sure no one could tell
You held a victim under your spell
So go hide, go hide
But I've got cigarette eyes
I feel uneasy, I think of you less
My mind is so restless
And I'm feeling depressed
Oh my, oh my, to see you with that spy
You lied but I know 'cause

I've got cigarette eyes
I feel uneasy, I think of you less
My mind is so restless
And I'm feeling depressed
Oh my, oh my, to see you with that spy
You lied but I know 'cause
I've got cigarette eyes
