Life For Sale

Dishwalla

You say youve come alone
You know I dont believe you
Knowing your lies
Your motives come around
You say Im all alone
And I dont have a place to call home
I got lost along the wayMy life is for sale
My life is for sale
My life is this moment gets closerI met you by the way
I watched you fall to your knees
Down low
Lost along the way
Now I see you come alive
Only to throw it all away
When you find another wayMy life is for sale
My life is for sale
My life is this moment gets closer
My life is this moment gets closerCan you believe with all the love it would end this way
Can you believe the time it took to lose it all and run
True love will kill him all the same, on a rainy day
I fear Ill find him dead alone
I met you by the way and loved you like a brother
All along
Just as I do todayNow I see you come alive
only to throw it all away
And push it in your faceMy life is for sale
My life is for sale
My life is this moment gets closer
My life is this moment gets closer(My life is this moment)
