Alone

Slick Shoes

I long to touch your face, I haven't seen you in so long
I'm never there when you need it most
No matter what road you walk down on your own
I'll be there, you won't always have to beAlone tonight, it's alright
I know that I'm gone
But here now, somehow
I can feel you with me in my heartI need to see your face, how has it been so long?
Out on the road you're stuck there at home
I thought of you today and all that you would say
I lost myself in you 'cause I don't want to have to beAlone tonight, it's alright
I know that I'm gone
But here now, somehow
I can feel you with me in my heartAlone tonight, it's alright
I know that I'm gone
But here now, somehow
I can feel you with me in my heartAlone tonight, it's alright
I know that I'm gone
But here now, somehow
I can feel you with me, I can feel you with me
I can feel you with me, I can feel you with me
I can feel you with me in my heart
