

Crocodile Shoes

The Takeaways

Wine, beer and spirits all the time
Though I have you, still she's always on my mind
The rain falls down, I'm soaking through
I'm an old man inside a young man's suit
My crocodile shoes are crying too
For they know how much love I have for you
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Wine, beer and spirits take me down
The lights are low and there's no one else around
The waitress sure looks pretty and that's a bad sign
I smile at her, still you're always on my mind
With your crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
I've lost so much in a short time
Don't see my kids, how I miss my wife
I let the world slip through my hands
And now I'm talking to the only friends I have
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
They're crying too, they're crying too
Crocodile shoes
They're crying too, they're crying too
Crocodile shoes
