Anyone For Tennis

Eric Clapton

Twice upon a time In the valley of the tears The auctioneer is bidding For a box of fading years And the elephants are dancing On the graves of squealing miceAnyone for tennis Wouldn't that be nice? And the ice-creams are all melting On the streets of bloody beer While the beggars stain the pavements With fluorescent Christmas cheer And the Bentley-driving guru Is putting up his priceAnyone for tennis Wouldn't that be nice? And the prophets in the boutiques Give out messages of hope With jingle bells and fairy tales And blind colliding scopes And you can tell they're all the same Underneath the pretty liesAnyone for tennis Wouldn't that be nice? Yellow Buddhist monk Is burning brightly at the zoo You can bring a bowl of rice And then a glass of water too And fate is setting up the chessboard While death rolls out the diceAnyone for tennis Wouldn't that be nice?
