The Shouting Matches

On to Gallup, on to San Antonio
It was in Phoenix, yeah, I was on the radio
Ah hi hi ah hi hi AbileneWhen you know, yeah
You know that your lies are talking
You know that your lies are walking with the truthThrough El Paso, you passed me up so long ago
It was a hard and calling road, I've been deniedJust when you know that
You know that your lies are talking
When you know that your lies are walking with the truth
And you were always looking
And I was always cooking up the proof
