

Mommy, Thank You

Mary Lambert

Do you remember, my first breath
My tiny hands and toes, nobody knows
The comfort your sweet caress as you held me in your arms
And although i couldn't speak to you, I would like to say these words to you.

Do you remember my terrible two's
My tantrums and my blues, but you understood
You'd sing to me in bed at night, snuggled covers up so tight
And although I could barely speak to you,
I would like to say these words to you.

Chorus

Mommy thank you, thank you
For everything you do
Mommy thank you, thank you
I love you
Mommy thank you, thank you
For all you brought me through
Mommy thank you, thank you
I love you

Do you remember my first day of school
You watched me walk away, I was so brave
You taught me to tie my shoes, how to chase away the blues
And although I didn't say it enough to you,
I would like to say these words to you

Do you remember my teenage years
When I knew better than you, I thought you hadn't a clue
You worried my first date, as I returned home late
And although I didn't appreciate you
I would like to say these words to you

Chorus

Do you remember when I went away to school
I finally got my degree, I felt so free
Your gentle words and all you say have helped me along the way
And although you thought I forgot about you

I would like to say these words to you

Do I remember now that I'm grown
With babies of my own, just to pick up the phone
Forgiveness of past mistakes, that everybody makes

Now before it is too late to do
I would like to say these words to you

Chorus X2

I love you
I love you
