they calling out the choppers nigga, nigga thats a hand gun they bringing out the choppers run ricky run the nigga sitting out the window the homie about to domp homeboy a motherfucking fool should have killed the jerry curled ass nigga when you had the chance to the moral of the story is you never let a nigga get away with nothing she hopping out the whip tre when she the young player light (yeah)

and i pulling out chopper got you niggas wide open like a dear in the front of headlights who the fuck can stop us? they calling up the cops they calling up the shooters nigga thats a handgun

they bringing out the choppers run raheem run
dont give that nigga bishop the motherfucking gun raheem is a motherfucking fool you never give a crazy ass nigga like bishop no handgun the moral of the story is you keep the grass cut so you can see the snakes come top floor shit man i 'm feeling awesome they hate to see you balling but the boy scoring the devil want my soul but he cant afford him had the snake show his head bet my homie off him who the fuck can stop
the calling up the shooters nigga thats a handgun
they calling up the choppers

nigga thats a handgun
we bringing out the choppers kane nigga run kane run run dont try to save no fucking kids the homies standing out the trunk bout to somebody tell me what a victim feel like we not familiar with the feeling this ladder so long cant even cancel it
