

Hallo-Ween

Dead Kennedys

Aie-e!

Yow!

Oh!

Aaah, y-y-y-yeah! So it's Halloween

And you feel like dancin'

And you feel like shinin'

And you feel like letting loose Whatcha gonna be?

Babe, you better know

And you better plan

Better plan all day

Better plan all week, better plan all month, better plan all year You're dressed up like a clown

Putting on your act

It's the only time all year you'll ever admit that

I can see your eyes, I can see your brain, baby, nothing's changed

I can see your eyes, I can see your brain, baby, nothing's changed Because you're still hiding in a mask

Take your fun seriously

No, don't blow this year's chance

Tomorrow your mold goes back on

After Halloween, after Halloween Whee!

You'll go to work today

You'll go to work tomorrow

Shitfaced tonight

You'll brag about it for months

"Remember what I did, remember what I was, back on Halloween?" But what's in between

Where are your ideas?

You sit around and dream

For next Halloween Why not everyday, are you so afraid, what will people say?

Why not everyday, are you so afraid, what will people say?

After Halloween

After Halloween

After Halloween Because your role is planned for you

There's nothing you can do

But stop and think it through

But what will the boss say to you?

And what will your girlfriend say to you?

And the people out on the street they might glare at you

And whadaya know, you're pretty self-conscious too?

So you run back and stuff yourselves in rigid business costumes

Only at night to score is your leather uniform exhumed

Why don't you take your social regulations, shove 'em up your ass?
Why don't you take your social regulations, shove 'em up your ass?
Why don't you take your social regulations, just shove 'em
Up your ass?
