

The Other Side of Life

Emmylou Harris

Praise God, I feel like singing
I'm on the other side of life now All my days of sorrow and tears for my loved ones
I wish I could tell them the joy that I feel
Though my body is weary my soul is uplifted
My sins are forgiven and my Jesus is real Praise God, I feel like singing
I'm on the other side of life now Though my eyes are dim I see heaven clearly
Though my voice grows feeble I sing just the same
In my heart there's a song as I see the gates open
I'll sing forever my joyous refrain
