Appraise Your Disguise

A Telemetry

set a drift without expense hindrance will dog your way deciding fast to sink or swim as tolerance begins to end cornered brilliantly

by unsuspecting eyes
valiant energy
maintains a small divide

if your looking for true devotion
balance emotion

challenge now to radiate a lasting impact on my wake residing not to choose or loose forbidden secrets start to ooze working diligently

on arrogance and lies
stringent activity
restrain a weighty vibe

elastic elusions
stretch the obvious
as reflex allows an integrated shroud
to hide behind
for all of time
