

I Don't Mind

Moody Blues

I don't mind your love
I don't mind the one you're thinking of
'Cause I know, baby I know
You're going to miss me I don't mind, he loves you so
I don't mind, it can't grow cold
'Cause I know, baby I know
You're going to miss me Baby, tell me what you've got to say I don't mind, this is all of my song
I don't mind, goodbye, so long
'Cause I know, hmm, I know
You're going to miss me Baby, don't you ever let me go?
You know, you know that I love you so
Why'd you leave me?
Why'd you leave me?
Oh, so bewildered Yeah
