Sherman

A.Tone Da Priest

[Intro]
Tone here, that means one thing certain
I keep the track burning like my name T. Sherman
Halt!
This shit too hot
Youre gonna need the whole Atlantic Ocean to put this out
Flame nigga
[Verse 1]
I dont play fair, war tactics abrasive
I blaze shit; leave the scene burnt no time to say shit
You play with fire; you get hurt thats a definite
So fucking with Tone will leave you hospitalized, resting bitch
Eyebrows synched, third degree, cant recognize the features
Spit straight fever, make an Atheist a believer
In hells flames certain its the worst it gets unthinkable
Leave a whole city ashed, in the past are your retrievables
I set a stage a blaze, light a blunt and watch the smoke rise
Its beautiful, image burnt up in my mind, polarized
Solar high, hotter than the sun, you get the picture
The King of Fi, devils child, or something more sinister
[Hook]
Tone hear, that me one thing certain
I keep the track burning like my name T. Sherman (3x)
[Verse 2]
Destruction, fire, and brimstone, I been on
A rampage, plan to raise hell just for the wins wrong
Maybe, but all is fair in love and war
Money took my heart, and since then dont know what to use it for Cupids whore, tempted me, rest in peace integrity we play for keeps
The strong move on and holes get buried for the weak
Never sleep, I must watch my back from those who plot against Im cursed my soul in flames and not heaven sent
In effect, evil in my mind betrays my better side
To compromise my safety to make me cake, the sacrifice is lives
All the lies lost in dust, the beat done been cremated
A couple seconds out our time to bow are heads and prey with Lord forgive me for my sins, intentions clear I swear to you
But over time my mind was corrupted shut out good was prepared to do Anything and everything to get an edge and set the score

Before are backs got shot, and men got knocked, refuse to lose the war
Forgive me for atrocities against my fellow man
But please forgive me, Im only human knew not of a better plan
Damn, you let the flame go theres no controlling it
The actions hot for certain, but the outcome is cold has shit
