Extra Ordinary Thing

Aqualung

Cheer up it might never happen
Oh, it might never happen we we'll see
As I sit here spitting and churning
Oh, it's clear it's happening right now to me
Make it special
For a loved one, for a stranger
Peace is hard to, hard to come by
Extra-ordinary thing
Why not believe in something
Somethings got to be better than nothing
Just because it's the end of the beginning
Doesn't mean it's the beginning of the end
Falling fractured, broken busted
All for nothing
Sing my heart out for a stranger
Extra-ordinary thing
Sing my heart out for a stranger
Extra-ordinary thing
