

Silver Bullets

ForthAngel

When the wicked come with the rising sun they follow me they constantly keep me awake at night under a moon lit sky they hunt for me drove by the scent of my blood they've taken away everything that I've loved I'm taking it back I'm so sick of waiting as of right now I'm taking my life back I want my life back I'm so sick of waiting while the enemy's taking my life away my life away
I will no longer wait with this gun in my hand and I'll split you open
with my silver bullets
and I'll split you open
with my silver bullets
When my shadow falls on your prison wall remember me cuz I'm gonna keep you awake at night and like a storm wind rising I'll come for you drove by affliction and pain it keeps me awake so I'm ready for war I'm taking it back
my life away my life away
I will no longer wait with this gun in my hand I'm so sick of wasting my life away there's so many years I will never get back with this gun in my hand I will no longer wait for these giants to fall
