Through

Galactic Cowboys

butterflies sunflowers walking hand in hand two adrift in a moments glance rainbows wildflowers a promise made in haste two embark on a fated chance on blind romance
i thought you were in love
what a fool's mistake
i don't care about love now it's true i'm through there were times when i had faith when i'd see something in your face then it all just went away and turned to hate
you assume all my feelings and live with your lies your heart's overflowing while mine is cast aside island incense and memories of you i thought we were in love
i don't care about you now what a twist of fate
