New Balance

The Cairos

I'm looking for a new balance just can't handle this, and i'm living in your ambience, and I'm fighting a new challange something in the way, and it's too much to handleYou're loosing my patience the way you dissapear and you're never there when i need you here, and my temple it's rising i can't accept the truth, and there's no way it's happeningChorus: Stay with me now
Don't stray from me now
I want you now
I want you now
Don't go to him now he don't care for you now
I want you now
I want you nowI'm searching but not finding your eyes they sing to me but do not share their misery, and there aint no denying the boy you left behind and the mess you createdThis world i getting smaller just no room for the two of us just wants nothing to do with us i know that i can't take it running lost and running gone she's gone for goodChorus X2(Guitar solo)oohhhhh ohhhh ohhhhChorus X2
