Days Go By

Jason Wade

Sit down, sit back, and watch the days go by
Are you ever gonna live before you die?
And when things fall apart
The world is coming down
Leave it all behind
Leave the loneliness alone
You wait forever blindSo come on and leave the years and you watch the days go by
Come on and leave the fears that you were afraid to find
Cause while you wait inside, the days go bySo all the memories fade and the days go by
Forget the lonely years
Today's in mind
I know its never gonna be the way you like
And I know you don't wanna think about
All the endlessness you find
You wait forever blindSo come on and leave the years and you watch the days go by
Come on and leave the fears that you were afraid to find
You're waiting for your time
Of these days gone wrong
Who broke your fall
What a way to learnSo come on and leave the years and you watch the days go by
Come on and leave the fears that you were afraid to find
Cause time is passing bySo come on and leave the years and you watch the days go by
Come on and leave the fears that you were afraid to find
Cause while you wait inside, the days go by
