Street Dominator

Youth Brigade

i've got a '66 ranchero, with a souped up 289 it's got a double barrel carb with four on the floor and when she runs it's really fine i've got the street dominator race ya for pinks but it'll have to be later street dominator as soon as i.... rebuild my carburetor 30 years of wear and tear has really taken it's toll with a little more care, some wrenching here and there, this truck'll be ready to roll rev it up johnny replace the shock, struts, little bulb in he door, she's almost tapped me out i fone more thing breaks down on this car, i'll torch it and drink a stout.
