

Look up at the Sky

Us The Duo

One, two, one, two, three I used to see you
Whenever I wanted
Going out and you'd be there
Breathing in the same air I used to feel your Arms around my body
Holding me like you always do
Never thought I'd be missing you like this Now I'm outside and my phone rings
And you say... No matter where you are
The stars are all the same
They flicker by the moon
They never rearrange
When your heart is aching
To be close to mine
Just call me on the phone
And look up at the sky Look up at the sky I used to take you
Anywhere I wanted
Paint the town a time or two
Make me laugh like you always do I would surprise you
And show up uninvited
Smiling, you take me in
Never though I'd be missing you like this Now I'm outside and my phone rings
And you say...
No matter where you are
The stars are all the same
They flicker by the moon
They never rearrange When your heart is aching
To be close to mine
Just call me on the phone
And look up at the sky Look up at the sky
Look up at the sky
Look up at the sky Now I'm outside and my phone rings
And you say... No matter where you are
The stars are all the same
They flicker by the moon
They never rearrange When your heart is aching
To be close to mine
Just call me on the phone
And look up at the sky Look up at the sky
Look up at the sky

Look up at the sky In the sky I'm looking at you

In the sky I'm looking at you

In the sky I'm all around you

In the sky I'm all around you

In the sky Look up at the sky

Look up at the sky

Look up at the sky
