

Greater Than

Basecamp

V1.

Spend your dollars

Spend your pounds

We sleep it off and make our rounds

I followed you around the world

Through every city, every town But how much longer? Ch.

See there's aiming the gun

And there's pulling the trigger

You can say what you want

But you know that there's a difference V2.

We meet with smiles

Part with cries

We board a plane and dry our eyes

The hands create a disconnect

It breaks through bonds and takes our eyes And the obligation is not yours

When winter ends and we head north

You've kept the breath inside our lungs

And we stood up on your supports But now no longer Ch. 2

See there's aiming the gun

And there's pulling the trigger

You can say what you want

But you know that there's a difference

And you are not your mom

And I am not my father

But if we don't have the time

I suppose that it's no bother

No, it's no bother.
