

Sleeping In

No Use for a Name

packing up the pictures in an old shoebox does it feel as if your taking back the love that made it real? its so silent i can almost hear you walk, and if everythings so high , then why are you so low, down the hall , standing in front of that window ,today im sleeping in woke up its too late and i should be a school, in the darkness you will always see his face and i could never take the place of him never one to see myself in front of that window, theirs always something wrong when you ignore the rules sucking up your tears didnt want me too know too much, reaching out your hand for one last touch, take me with you,
in a lifetime time will always take our place, everybody here is fake, and i dont wanna feel the same when you give in,
and i will lay here shielded from the pain, arrgrhh you gave me all that i could take and gave me strenght to carry on in the darkness you will always see his face this is a long time felt today, and i dont wanna be their when you do give in
in a lifetime time will always take our place,
i do whatever i want you never let me downi always felt so lost , so now your found, and thats okay and thats okay
