Greater Than

Tye Tribbett

Here in a box I hide the letters Written, postmarked with your name Secrets I wish I could only share With a heart that feels, feels the same And here we fall to pieces In front of each other but we know Somehow we're greater Than our lonely fears Here's where the notes were torn and crumbled Before feelings could reach the page Try to replace some sober thought From emotion, fists held up with rage And here we fall to pieces In front of each other but we know Somehow we're so much greater Than Here we fall to pieces

In front of each other but we know Somehow we're greater

Than our lonely fears Though I'm a simple mind, I know I can see the picture drawn out here You are the reason I have found To keep believing in these years And though the road is long The trying keeps us holding on this way And make no mistake, this is love Love, love, love, this is love, love And here we fall to pieces In front of each other but we know Somehow we're so much greater Than Here we fall to pieces In front of each other but we know Somehow we're greater

Than our lonely fears
