Someday Go

Seven Places

I feel the wind blow, does anyone know?
Who it is breathing, sending us hopeI see the sun, I found warmth in its light
(I found warmth)
(In its light)
Just like Your eyes, I found grace in your sight
(My eyes have found grace)Someday I'll go, I will see Your face
I will let go of these eyes of faithHere in the valley, a little confused
I look to the mountain, my help comes from YouI see the sun, I found warmth in its light
(I found warmth)
(In its light)
Just like Your eyes, I found grace in your sight
(My eyes have found grace)Someday I'll go, I will see Your face
I will let go of these eyes of faithThe clouds roll into my life
(My life)
And they remind of how You'll meet me in the skyI feel the wind blow, does anyone know?
Under these clouds, oh, where did we go?I see the sun, I found warmth in its light
(I found warmth)
(In its light)
Just like Your eyes, I found grace in your sight
(My eyes have found grace)Someday I'll go, I will see Your face
I will let go of these eyes of faithSomeday I'll go, I will see Your face
I will let go of these eyes of faithSomeday I'll go
(Someday I'll go)
Someday I'll go
