

Sugar Honey Iced Tea

Kelis

I woke up this mornin' and seen somethin' bright

Was that you?

Then I heard a voice sound like birds outside

Was that you?

But I bet you didn't know

You're my sugar honey iced tea, baby

You're just as sweet as can be

Your momma must be made of sugar

Your daddy makes honey

And that's what makes sense to me, oh

Not sure if I was dreamin' of you and I

Was that true? Oh, I don't know

Smilin' and squeezin' in the bluest sky

Wasn't that true?

But I bet you didn't know

You're my sugar honey iced tea, baby

You're just as sweet as can be

Your momma must be made of sugar

Your daddy makes honey

And that's what makes sense to me, oh

Open my arms, see, my love's a window

It's open for you not to hurt you

Actually reverse effects

Like that in a Tide commercial

We'll be blowin' free in the wind

It's a sunny day, I sip your love and grin

Hold it now, hold it now

Two steps to my love, baby

Two steps to my love

Two steps to my love, baby

Two steps to my love

Two steps to my love, baby

Two steps to my love

Hold it now

But I bet you didn't know

You're my sugar honey iced tea, baby

You're just as sweet as can be

Your momma must be made of sugar

Your daddy makes honey
And that's what makes sense to me, oh
Open my arms, see, my love's a window
It's open for you, not to hurt you
Actually reverse effects
Like that in a Tide commercial
We'll be blowin' free in the wind
It's a sunny day, I sip your love and grin
Hold it now
(Shu-sugar-sugar honey iced-iced-tea)
Hold it now
(Shu-sugar-sugar honey iced-ice-tea)
Hold it now
(Shu-sugar-sugar honey iced-iced-tea)
Hold it now
(Shu-sugar-sugar honey iced-iced-tea)
