

Guilty

Marina and The Diamonds

I was dreaming something bad
Hiding body parts
A broken dagger, broken leg
I left it cold, I left it deadOh, I'm a guilty one
And I know what I have done
Yeah, I'm a troubled one
And I won't be forgivenGuilty on the run
And I know what I have done
Guilty on the run
And I'm never forgivenI was just a kid
That you could not forgive because it's harder
I was just a kid
And all I really wanted was my fatherI killed a dog so smart and red
Touched his Technicolored hair
I left it bruised and black and lame
I left it running for shameOh, I'm a guilty one
And I know what I have done
Yeah, I'm a troubled one
And I won't be forgivenGuilty on the run
And I know what I have done
Guilty on the run
And I'm never forgivenI was just a kid
That you could not forgive because it's harder
I was just a kid
And all I really wanted was my fatherSpent years singing to forget
I spent years singing, no regrets
Then suddenly it all becomes clear
I've been sorry all these yearsI was just a kid
That you could not forgive because it's harder
I was just a kid
And all I really wanted was my fatherGuilty on the run
And I know what I have done
Guilty on the run
And I'm never forgivenGuilty on the run
And I know what I have done
Guilty on the run
And I'm never forgiven
