Let It Slide

Joanna

It's a touch without feelings, it's a kiss without love
It's the faith that we're losin' and the truth that we hide
It's a tear without cryin', it's a word with no sound
It's my heart full of sorrow and a lover left behindKeep me from fallin', from fallin', you gotta set me free
Keep me from cryin', from cryin', and now it's clear to see
See that I'm leavin, I'm leavin', that it's time to let me beLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me flyLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me flyIt's a room full of silence, it's a day without light
Well, anger keeps risin', and there's nothing left to say
Put your face at the window, it's the world passing by
And the life that we shared and the love
That belonged turned to pain along the wayKeep me from fallin', from fallin', you gotta set me free
Keep me from cryin', from cryin', and now it's clear to see
See that I'm leavin, I'm leavin', 'cause it's time to let me beLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me fly, it's time to let me flyLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me fly, yeah, yeahSlide, slide, slide
Come on baby let it slide
Slide, slide, slide
Come on baby, let it slideLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me flyCome on baby, let it slideLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me flyLet it slide, let it slide
I know it hurts when I say goodbye
But the time has come, let me spread my wings
It's time to let me fly
