Slaves To Substance

Suicide Silence

youre all slaves
so sit back bitch what the fuck's its gonna be?
are you listening to me?
its your dependence robbing innocence is this really who you wanted to be?
rock bottom is your wake up call oh my god youre pitiful your dependence robbing your innocence that makes you a slave to substance eeah!
slaves your fucking worthless you seee that youve hit the bottom you see everything is wrong you see youve hit the bottom (slaves in shackles) you see that youve hit the bottom right now your mind is gone you see that youve hit the bottom (slaves in shackles) slaves! to substance eeah! that makes you a slave! youre fucking worthless!

im gonna sit back with my shades on watching you make all the same mistakes we all went through everything that ive been through that i regret im watching everything you do now ever since we met
its your dependence robbing innocence
is this really who you wanted to be?
slaves in shackles never to be set free that makes you a slave! youre fucking worthless (and now you see that youve hit the bottom and now you see everything is wrong
and now you see that youve hit the bottom and now you see that your mind is gone
and now you see that youve hit the bottom and now you see that everything is wrong and now you see that youve hit hte bottom and thats why i wrote this song!)
